

Frankenstein Happenings

A stampable record of events for UCF students.

Get your stamps at the events for fun and possible extra credit.

Check the website or call the day of the event for possible changes and more information.

407-823-2562

<http://library.ucf.edu/Frankenstein>

October 27 to December 10, UCF Main Library

Exhibits Viewing

The traveling exhibit and 6 Frankenstein-themed displays. 2nd floor, all regular library hours.

An exhibit on science fiction books. Special Collections (5th floor), M-F, 8-5.

Obtain stamp from docents or Reference Librarians until 11pm.

Tuesday, October 26, 2004, 4-5:30 pm
Library, Room 223

Creating a Monster: Fright Make-up for Amateurs

Presented by Ms. Kristina Tollefson

Followed by a discussion with Mr. Scott Sylvester on techniques used for creating his eight foot Frankenstein statue and masks.

Wednesday, October 27, 2004, 12:30-2 pm
Library, Second Floor (near Reference Desk)

iTeam: The Interactive Frankenstein Experience

A collaboration of Mr. J.J. Ruscella (Theatre), Mr. Jeff Wirth (Digital Media), and Ms. Lori Ingle (Film).

Join us if you dare!

Wednesday, October 27, 2004, 8 pm
Outdoors on the Mall (In case of rain: Student Union, Pegasus Ballroom A & B)

Young Frankenstein (1974, 106 minutes)

Introduced by Dr. Mary Johnson of the School of Film and Digital Media.

Preceded by a showing of the winning film from the UCF Student Frankenstein Film Competition.

Thursday, October 28, 2004 12:30-2pm
Library, Second Floor (near Reference Desk)

iTeam: The Interactive Frankenstein Experience

A collaboration of Mr. J.J. Ruscella (Theatre), Mr. Jeff Wirth (Digital Media), and Ms. Lori Ingle (Film).

Join us if you dare!

Friday, October 29, 2004, 12-1 pm
Library, Room 223

Frankenstein and Organ Donation: Myth versus Fact

Presented by Ms. Lesley Ann McMillen, Public Education Coordinator for TransLife, and Ms. Melissa Lanzone, UCF Get Carded Co-Director

Friday, October, 29, 2004, 7-9 pm
Library, Second Floor

It Was a Dark and Stormy Night

Presented by Dr. Rick Schell

Opening Reception for the traveling exhibit. Followed by a reading of the winning Ten-Minute Play submitted by a UCF student.

Tuesday November 2, 2004, 12-1 pm
Library, Room 223

Creating Life from the Lifeless: the Art of Cloning

Presented by Dr. Alison Morrison-Shetlar, Director of the Faculty Center for Teaching and Learning.

Wednesday, November 3, 2004, 12-1 pm
Library, Room 223

"I Was Frankenstein's Monster!"

Orlando's Mr. Magic, Harry Wise, reminisces and does prestidigitation.

Thursday, November 4, 2004, 12-1 pm
Library, Room 223

What Science Did Mary Shelley Know and When Could She Have Known It?

Presented by Dr. Michael Bass, Professor Emeritus of Optics

Monday, November 8, 2004, 1-2 pm

Honors Luncheon Guest: Mr. Mark Kruger (Invitation Only)

Monday, November 8, 2004, 2-3 pm
Communications Bldg, Room 145

Aspiring Screenwriters Mini-Workshop

Presented by Mr. Mark Kruger, Los Angeles screenwriter for the new Hallmark Frankenstein miniseries.

Exhibit

Lecture

Film

Hands-on

Monday, November 8, 2004, 7 pm
Library, Room 223

Scary Movies and the Screenwriters Who Create Them

Presented by Mr. Mark Kruger, Los Angeles screenwriter.

Sunday, November 14, 2004, 1:00 pm
Downtown at Orlando Public Library - Library Central
101 E. Central Blvd. (407-835-7323)

It was a Dark and Stormy Night

Presented by Dr. Rick Schell
A reprise of the Opening Reception talk.

Tuesday, November 16th, 7 pm
Library, Room 223

Abbott & Costello Meet

Frankenstein, (1948, 83 minutes
Introduced by Mr. Tom Begley, Theatre Department.
Preceded by a showing of the UCF Student Frankenstein Film Competition entries.

Thursday, November 18, 2004, 7 pm
Live Oak Room, Student Resource Center

Predicting the Future through Science Fiction: Frankenstein Refuted

Presented by science fiction writer Mr. Ben Bova

Monday, November 8, 2004, approximately 8:30 pm, Library, Room 223

Frankenstein by Thomas Edison (1910, 15 minutes).

Introduced by Mr. Barry Sandler of the School of Film and Digital media.
Followed by the premiere of UCF Student Frankenstein Film Competition entries.

Monday, November 15, 2004, 1-2 pm

Honors Luncheon Guest: Robotic Psychiatrist Joanne Pransky (Invitation Only)

Wednesday, November 17, 2004, 1-2 pm

Honors Luncheon Guest: Writer Dr. Kay Picart (Invitation Only)

Friday, November 19, 2004, 12-1 pm

Honors Luncheon Guest: Science Fiction Author Ben Bova (Invitation Only)

Tuesday, November 9, 2004, 12-1 pm
Library, Room 223

Biotechnology: Boon or Bane?

Presented by Dr. Henry Daniell, Department of Molecular Biology & Microbiology

Monday, November 15, 2004, 3-4 pm
Library, Room 223

The Frankenstein Complex and Its Impact on Robotics

Presented by "Dr." Joanne Pransky, The World's First Robotic Psychiatrist®

Wednesday, November 17 2004, 7 pm
Library, Room 223

Cinematic Legacy of Frankenstein: Gender, Power, Horror, Humor

A multimedia presentation by Dr. Kay Picart of Florida State University

Monday, November 22, 2004, 12-1 pm
Library, Room 223

Frankenstein's Three Brains: Cognitive Neuro-Science-Fiction

Presented by Dr. Shaun Gallagher, Philosophy Department

Tuesday, November 9, 2004, 7 pm
Library, Room 223

Bioethics Panel Discussion

Dr. Ronnie Hawkins, Department of Philosophy, Dr. Dawn Oetjen, Department of Health Professions, Dr. Leslie Lieberman, Department of Anthropology, and Dr. Randy Tompkins, Florida Hospital College of Health Services with Mr. Stephan Ihde, Nicholson School of Communication, as moderator.

Tuesday, November 16, 2004, 12-1 pm
Library, Room 223

You, Me, and The Other: Frankenstein and Diversity

Presented by Dr. Bette Tallen, Office of Diversity Initiatives

Wednesday, November 17th, at approximately 8:30 pm
Library, Room 223

Frankenstein (1931, 71 minutes).

Introduced by Dr. Kay Picart of Florida State University.

Monday, November 22, 2004, 7 pm
Library, Room 223

Mary Shelley's Frankenstein

Introduced by Ms. Ula Stoeckl of the School of Film and Digital Media.

Exhibit

Lecture

Film

Hands-on

Exhibit

Lecture

Film

Hands-on