21st Issue

INSTALLMENTS

June/July 2008

NEWS YOU CAN USE FROM YOUR UCF LIBRARIES

Check Out the New Interactive Floor Map

http://library.ucf.edu/Administration/Maps

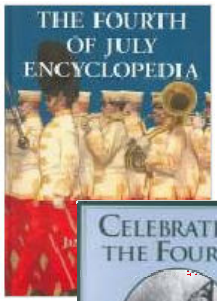
Is your email address up-to-date in "my.ucf.edu"?

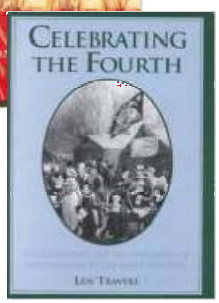
To provide quicker and more convenient services the Circulation Department is implementing Email notices for Fines & Bill Statements.

Student and employee email and mailing addresses are automatically uploaded into the Library's database using the data from your "my.ucf.edu" account. In order for the Library to send any notices or correspondences to you, your email and other addresses in your "my.ucf.edu" account must be current. You can stop by the Circulation Desk to check if we have your correct email/address information.

Need a quiet place to study?

Please be respectful and courteous to your fellow students and remember that the 4th floor of the Library is a QUIET study floor.





Would you be surprised to learn that July 4th was not made a legal federal holiday until 1941? In fact, how we have viewed, observed, and celebrated this day has changed a lot with time. You can find out more about July 4th by checking out these books from the Main Library:

Celebrating the fourth: Independence Day and the rites of Nationalism in the Early Republic
E286.A184—1st Floor

The Fourth of July Encyclopedia
E286.A1284—1st Floor

The Folklore of the American Holidays
GT4803.F65—1st Floor

The library will be CLOSED Friday, July 4th in honor of Independence Day!

Comments, questions and suggestions are always entertained! E-mail the editor: libnews@mail.ucf.edu