CALL FOR ENTRIES

2010 BOOK ARTS COMPETITION

Sponsored by the Special Collections & University Archives Department at the University of Central Florida Libraries

AWARD/PURCHASE

The winner(s) will receive a monetary award and their books will become part of the Special Collections & University Archives Department at the University of Central Florida Libraries.

CLOSING DATE FOR ENTRIES

April 16, 2010

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

The mission of UCF Libraries Department of Special Collections & University Archives is to provide services central to the Library and University community in support of research, teaching and service. Materials are collected which cannot be easily replaced and include, but are not limited to, books, manuscripts, historic public records, ephemera, photographs, and art. These materials have a central function to the curriculum and support long-term research goals. The preservation of these materials is a service to the local, state and national research community.

The Books Arts Collection at the Department is a resource collection of books, or book-like objects, created by artists and works of art. The Collection also includes examples of fine press books, periodicals, and other books related to bookbinding, papermaking, calligraphy, typography, and printing.

Jurors will choose book(s) created by UCF student(s) to be added to the Book Arts Collection and the winner(s) will be awarded a monetary prize. Winner(s) will be announced April 2010.

Jurors:

The criteria for and names of the jurors are available to look at in the Special Collections & University Archives Department, located in the UCF Library, Main Campus, room 501 from 9am-1pm, Monday through Friday.
